

The UN Committee for Development Policy (CDP), as a subsidiary body of the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), monitors the development progress of the countries that are graduating and have graduated from the least developed country (LDC) category.

CONTACT >>

 cdp@un.org

 cdp.un.org

Building resilience for a smooth transition

Enhanced Monitoring Mechanism
FOR LEAST DEVELOPED COUNTRIES

.....
Improved assistance to graduating and recently graduated countries

United Nations

Committee for Development
Policy

Improved Annual Monitoring >>

- CDP country rapporteurs
- Consultation with the Government
- Annual monitoring report with improved coverage
- Annual report by the Government

Crisis Response Process >>

- Regular communication with LDC focal point in the Government
- Crisis indicators and trigger thresholds
- Crisis assessment
- CDP action to support country-specific crisis management

Strengthened Support >>

- Increased capacity in DESA/CDP Secretariat
- Mobilize UN system expertise in crisis management on country and global level
- Promote regular country reporting
- Dedicated sessions in ECOSOC fora
- Included in the Doha Programme of Action for LDCs
- Capacity development

Improved Annual Monitoring

Crisis Response Process

Strengthened Support

